Understanding Clinical Teaching

Clinical Teaching is the culminating experience where pre-service teachers demonstrate their knowledge, skills, and dispositions related to educating pre-kindergarten through twelfth grade students. This is a time when student teachers demonstrate their commitment to the personal and professional qualities included in our College of Education Conceptual Framework. It is critical to view Clinical Teaching as an opportunity to grow as a professional. As guests in the public school systems, pre-service teachers demonstrate their knowledge of instruction and pedagogy as well as their commitment to serving all students while contributing to the learning community.

Pre-service teachers are assigned both a field supervisor, employed by SFA, and a cooperating teacher for each teaching assignment. Cooperating teachers are master teachers, employed by the school district, and are important components of this education experience. They provide models of effective practice, caring professionalism, and critical thinking. They are also resources, supports, and evaluators of the pre-service teachers.

The Clinical Teaching semester at SFA is 15 full weeks of unpaid observation and teaching. When not directly teaching, pre-service teachers should be assisting and observing in classes, with one period per day being reserved for preparation time.

Pre-Student Teaching Visit

Upon receipt of your Clinical Teaching placements, become acquainted with the school of your pre-service teaching placement(s). Research the school(s) on the Internet, learning as much about the campus, and educational programs as possible. Make note of questions you may have (i.e. where to park, if/where you sign in and out each day). Call the school and schedule a brief visit with the principal and cooperating teacher.

Once on campus, tour the building. Become familiar with important locations: office, first placement classroom, adult restrooms, etc. As a guest on campus, you are unfamiliar with campus policies and procedures. Ask if you may have or borrow a copy of the teacher and student handbooks. Study them!

Visit with your cooperating teacher. Maintain contact with your cooperating teacher by exchanging important contact information: telephone numbers, email addresses, etc. at your first meeting. After the campus visit, contact your field supervisor and let him/her know you have made your initial contacts and school visits.
Clinical Teaching Policies

The Professional Educators’ Council has approved major policies guiding the Clinical Teaching experience(s) at SFASU. The policies as approved are shown below. A more detailed handbook of all practices and policies governing the Educator Preparation Program (EPP) can be found in the Educator Preparation Program Handbook on the PCOE website.

1. Extenuating Circumstances. Students who anticipate giving birth, having elective surgery, or other circumstances that require an extended period of absence are advised to enroll in student teaching at another time. Students with special circumstances related to student teaching should confer with the Associate Dean PRIOR to placement.

2. Professionalism. Student teachers adhere to ethical standards of the teaching profession as outlines in the Texas Administrative Code Educators’ Code of Ethics, to SFA policies for university students, and to the policies of the school where they are assigned.

3. Corporal Punishment. Student teachers will not administer corporal punishment. If school personnel determine corporal punishment is necessary, a district employee, NOT the student teacher, must administer it.

4. Calendar. A semester calendar is provided with specific dates and responsibilities. Student teachers follow the assigned public school calendar, not the SFA calendar.

5. Field Supervisors. Field supervisor is defined as a certified educator, hired by the educator preparation program, who preferably has advanced credentials, to observe candidates, monitor his or her performance, and provides constructive feedback to improve his or her professional performance.

6. Cooperating Teachers. Cooperating teachers are selected by school district personnel to mentor student teachers using the following criteria:
   - At least three years successful teaching.
   - Possesses a desire to work with student teachers.
   - Teaching assignment content area is in student teacher’s certification area.

7. Student Teacher Responsibilities. Student teachers are expected to adhere to the roles and responsibilities described in this handbook.

8. Evaluation and Grading. Each evaluation is a cooperative task shared by the student teacher, the cooperating teacher, and the field supervisor.
   - Much of the cooperating teacher’s evaluation is informal, and thus, the student teacher should gain direction for action from brief, daily evaluations.
   - The field supervisor provides formal evaluation of each scheduled visit.
   - The field supervisor uses the SFA Field Experience/Clinical Teaching Evaluation
Form to evaluate each observed lesson. A conference follows each observation where the field supervisor reinforces effective teaching and addresses deficiencies or problems, providing suggestions for enhancing planning, instruction, interaction, and assessment. The student, the cooperating teacher, and the field supervisor should sign this form. A copy should be given to the school principal or designee.

- During the field supervisor’s last visit in each assignment, the field supervisor, the cooperating teacher, and the student teacher make a final evaluation of the student teacher’s performance cooperatively. This and other documentation becomes a part of the student’s certification file maintained in the Office of Assessment and Accountability. See Appendix.

- The final grade given for student teaching will be pass (P) or fail (F). See syllabus for requirements.

- Student teaching can only be repeated once.

- Course Evaluations – at the end of each semester, candidates will receive an automated email explaining that end of semester course evaluations are available in mySFA. Students are encouraged to complete the evaluation just as is done for other professors/ courses throughout the SFA career. Other required Clinical Teaching surveys will be completed through a LiveText account as instructed in the online companion class taken with Clinical Teaching.

9. Candidate Intervention and Program Continuation Procedures. In the event the student teacher fails to meet expectations, the cooperating teacher and/or field supervisor have the authority and responsibility to discuss the student teacher’s behavior with him/her. The cooperating teacher and field supervisor will use informal attempts to change behaviors that include but are not limited to the following: providing guidance, observation, anecdotal records, and meetings. Should informal attempts not result in improvement or a change in behavior then the field supervisor will follow the procedures outlined in the Candidate Intervention and Program Continuation Procedures document.
Attendance Policies

1. Student teachers follow the same calendar, holidays, and daily schedule as the district/school to which they are assigned and they observe the local school’s policy-governing teachers’ daily arrival and departure times. They are required to be present each day of the Clinical Teaching assignment.

2. In some instances, a student teacher may be expected to stay beyond normal departure times if the cooperating teacher has a professional assignment that extends beyond the normal school day. Approval for the release of a student teacher from attendance is the responsibility of the Associate Dean of Assessment and Accountability, NOT the cooperating teacher or the field supervisor.

3. Absences are to be requested and reported as soon as possible to the cooperating teacher and field supervisor. Each absence requires proper documentation within the LiveText FEM Module. There is a time log kept, and the absence and hours missed must be noted within that log.

4. PRIOR TO an absence, the cooperating teacher AND field supervisor are to be notified. Please check with the cooperating and field supervisor to know their expectations. In extreme cases, the Associate Dean of Assessment and Accountability may be consulted. Failure to attend the Clinical Teaching Orientation will result in an initial documented absence.

5. Student teachers attend school every day.

6. Leaving the school campus during the school day without prior permission from both your Cooperating Teacher and Field Supervisor is unacceptable.

Additional information about the attendance policy is outlined in the course syllabus.
Substitute Teaching

1. With the approval of Senate Bill 1, each teacher preparation program is permitted to determine its own policy regarding student teachers serving as substitute teachers. SFASU’s policy, prepared in collaboration with the Center for Educational Partnerships, is outlined below:

2. Student teachers may serve as substitute teachers only after successfully completing 6 weeks of student teaching.

3. A student teacher is not considered to be serving as a substitute if the student teacher assumes responsibility for the class while the cooperating teacher is out of the classroom for a part of the day, is in the building, or is engaged in an approved activity relating to student teaching OR if there is a paid substitute in the classroom. A student teacher is considered to be serving as a substitute when the cooperating teacher is absent from school and no paid personnel is in the classroom with the student teacher.

4. A student teacher may be used as a substitute only if he/she is willing to do so and if the Cooperating teacher and field supervisor recommends him/her for substituting.

5. A certified classroom teacher must be in an adjacent room and agree to assist the student teacher if needed.

6. The principal of the school or the principal’s representative must be readily available in the building, must take responsibility for monitoring the student teacher when he/she is substituting, and must be available as a resource for discipline problems.

7. Student teachers may substitute for a maximum of five days: two days unpaid, and three days paid, as approved by the district. It is the student’s responsibility to fill out the appropriate paperwork in the school district’s Human Resources Department for the student teacher to receive pay.

8. If the district requires substitute teachers to attend district training, the student teacher IS NOT excused from his or her student teaching assignment to attend the training. When the student teacher agrees to attend district substitute teacher training, he or she MUST make up the missed day, regardless of the number of absences up to that time.

9. Student teachers who serve as substitutes will be paid at the same rate paid as other district substitutes and the substitute’s schedule must include a lunch period and a conference period.
10. Student teachers who substitute must abide by all district guidelines for substitute teachers.

11. The Office of Assessment and Accountability must approve any exceptions to this policy in advance.
Clinical Teaching Expectations

Successful student teachers are professional in their relationships with students, administrators, supervisors, other teachers, and the support staff. They abide by the Texas Educators’ Code of Ethics and exhibit the following behaviors as they assume their responsibilities:

- Conduct themselves in a way that reflects maturity, good judgment, diplomacy and a high ethical standard.
- Develop and nurture appropriate relationships with students.
- Maintain confidentiality regarding all information concerning students.
- Adhere to all local school policies while assigned to the school district.
- Exhibit appropriate professional appearance based on good grooming and appropriateness for the teaching assignment. All school districts have expectations for teacher dress and have established dress codes, either written or expressed. Professional dress communicates respect for the role of the teacher, students, and education.

Student teachers continue to develop their professional career. The SFA model for Clinical Teaching is one of observation, practice, and professionalism. Student teachers begin their experience with confidence built from their knowledge, sound general education, and area of specialization; their many hands-on experiences during laboratory assignments and internships; and a foundation of professional practice provided during SFA’s quality education courses and field experiences. These student teachers understand the Clinical Teaching experience represents a partnership among professionals committed to success in teaching and learning.

Student teachers shadow the teacher, assuming his/her professional duties over time. They follow school routines such as signing in and out each day in the designated location, typically the office. If the teacher has early morning duty, so does the student teacher. If the teacher has afternoon bus duty, so does the student teacher. When the teacher is expected to be in a meeting, and it is deemed appropriate, the student teacher must attend.

On campus and off, the student teacher is to display a positive disposition toward children and colleagues. Professionalism should be visible in all actions of the student teacher, both on and off campus.

The student teacher works with the cooperating teacher to determine which lessons will be taught by the student teacher.
Beginning with observation the student teacher moves toward limited teaching, with gradual assumption of all teaching responsibilities. Eventually, he/she assumes full classroom responsibilities (See Student Teaching Process Chart).

The cooperating teacher determines the major objectives for lessons, and he/she monitors the student teacher’s development of the lessons. Each student teacher assumes full responsibility in planning lessons to achieve TEKS. Cooperating teachers retain a copy of all lesson plans. Planning is done in close cooperation with the cooperating teacher and may include the field supervisor. All lesson plans, assessments, guest speakers, field trips, and grades are approved by the cooperating teacher prior to implementation.

Frequently Asked Questions

Question: What does Clinical Teaching Involve?
Answer: During your Clinical Teaching semester, you will report to your assigned public school with your assigned cooperating teacher as if you were the teacher of that classroom. Clinical Teaching courses do not meet on the UNT campus. If you are an undergraduate elementary student participating in a Professional Development School (PDS), then you will be required to attend seminars scheduled by your PDS Coordinator.

Question: What is the time commitment with Clinical Teaching?
Answer: Although Clinical Teaching is 6-9 credit hours, you should consider yourself a full-time student because you are expected to be on your assigned campus all day five days a week. While on a field campus in a school district, you are required to keep the contract hours for all employed teachers on that campus. You may need to stay after school to prepare lessons you will be teaching, attend meetings or attend school-sponsored functions.

Question: Can I take other classes while in Clinical Teaching?
Answer: You cannot take courses during the school day. It is permitted to take campus classes after the end of your assigned school day. It is typically permitted to take online coursework in conjunction with Clinical Teaching hours, as long as it does not interfere with your assigned Clinical Teaching hours. If you want to take an additional course during Clinical Teaching, you must appeal using the appropriate appeal form found on the Student Advising Website.

Question: When does the Student Teacher’s day begin and end?
Answer: As a student teacher, you should report to your campus when your cooperating teacher is required to report to their campus and you may not leave until your cooperating teacher is teaching day is complete. It is suggested that student teachers should mirror their cooperating teacher’s arrival and departure time.

Question: Whose holiday schedules do me follow, the university or the school district?
Answer: Student teachers follow the Holiday schedule that the school district follows. The university sets your beginning and ending day of Clinical Teaching.

Question: Am I required to attend Staff Development Days?
Answer: Yes, you are required to attend all school district staff development days.
Question: What is the absence policy during Clinical Teaching?
Answer: Student Teachers are expected to be present every day of Clinical Teaching. In the case of a serious illness or emergency, the Student Teacher should notify his/her cooperating teacher and the university supervisor no later than 7:00a.m., on the morning of the absence. Unless approved by the university supervisor, the Office of Assessment and Accountability and the host school administration, any absence from Clinical Teaching will need to be made up. You must log all absences within your FEM time log in LiveText. See page 23 for all attendance policies.

Question: Whom do I contact about fingerprinting and the Taxes’ exam?
Answer: Contact the Taxes’ Advising Office at (940) 369-8601 for any questions regarding the Taxes’ or fingerprinting.
Certification Information
EDUCATOR CERTIFICATION

At Stephen F. Austin State University, the preparation of teachers and other educational leaders is considered the task of the entire university. The Professional Educators’ Council (composed of faculty and administrators from each of the colleges with teaching fields) develops policy for the programs.

The Educator Preparation Program is standard-based, learner-centered, and delivered in a collaborative, field-based environment. Technology skills and responsiveness to diversity are integral parts of the programs. As with all teacher preparation in Texas, each program completer has an academic specialization and a common core curriculum as a basis for the professional education sequence. Assessment is benchmarked throughout the program. Recommendation for certification is made by SFA to the State Board for Educator Certification (SBEC) when the program, including successful Taxes’ testing in teaching fields and pedagogy, is completed.

Students in the various programs have a sequence of field experiences that are delivered in collaboration with partners in the public schools. Multiple schools in the East Texas area serve as sites for early field experiences for undergraduate students. Multiple school districts in East Texas, the Houston area, and the Dallas metropolis offer sites for Clinical Teaching.

Certification Exams

Texas law requires that every person seeking educator certification perform satisfactorily on comprehensive examinations. The purpose of the examinations is to ensure that each educator has the necessary content and professional knowledge to perform satisfactorily in Texas public schools.

Policies for all individuals seeking certification through SFASU:

- An individual is eligible to sit for a test upon completion of all coursework required for the test.
- An individual must have clearance from the appropriate department to take a test.
- An individual will be approved for only one test at a time.
- An individual who fails a test must retake the failed test and pass it before being cleared to take a different test.
- A student must pass the appropriate TExES test in his/her content area prior to student teaching.
- According to the Texas Administrative Code, only 4 subsequent attempts on a certification exam are allowed after an initial failed attempt. This means that SFA can only clear candidates for 5 total attempts on any certification exam.
- Candidates are eligible to take additional TExES exams AFTER passing their TExES exams (Content & PPR) for the Standard Certificate. An example includes, but is not limited to, TExES154: ESL Supplemental.
- If an individual is successful on the additional exams, they can be added to the certificate after the Standard Certificate has been issued by the TEA 4 – 6 weeks after graduation.

You MUST pass the TExES examination in your specific content area & PPR prior to being eligible to apply for your Standard Certificate.
APPLYING FOR YOUR STANDARD CERTIFICATE

Certificate recommendations require the following:

- All program coursework completed
- All grades posted
- Degree conferred by the Registrar’s office on final transcript (may take up to 6-8 weeks AFTER graduation)
- Clinical teaching completed
- Certification tests passed (Content and PPR)
- An online application submitted to TEA https://pryor.tea.state.tx.us/ (see Step-by-Step Guide on the next page)
- Payment to TEA for the certificate

Earliest dates to apply for certificates each semester (Do NOT apply until your TExES testing is completed):

- December graduates may begin applying November 1
- May graduates may begin applying April 1
- August graduates may begin applying July 1

Additional Information:

- TEA will NOT mail you a hard copy of your certificate. You can view your certificate on the TEA website.
- SFA will only recommend you for certification in the content area that we prepared you for.

Recommendation cannot be made by SFA until degrees have been conferred by the Registrar’s office, which can take up to 4-6 weeks AFTER graduation.

Students will be notified by TEA that they have been recommended by SFA.

The Office of Assessment and Accountability would like to thank you in advance for your patience and understanding

IMPORTANT

Certification FAQ

1. I’m going to graduate this semester, what do I do?
   a. APPLY FOR CERTIFICATION (see Certificate Application Manual)

2. When can I start applying for certification?
   a. You should apply about a month before you graduate (ex: if you graduate in December, begin applying November 1)

3. I walked across the stage at graduation, doesn’t that mean I’m automatically certified?
   a. No! You have to apply for your certification through TEA

4. I already applied for my certificate and graduated, but my certificate isn’t posted. Why?
   a. You cannot be recommended for certification until your degree is conferred on your final transcript by the Office of the Registrar, which can take up to 6-8 weeks AFTER graduation AND both certification tests (content and PPR) have been passed.

5. I can see on mySFA that my final grades have already been posted. Isn’t that good enough?
   a. No. The state legally requires you to have a Bachelor’s degree conferred on your transcript, which can take up to 6-8 weeks after graduation, before you can be certified.

6. I applied but didn’t get my certificate in the mail.
   a. That’s because TEA no longer sends paper copies of your certificate. You can view your certificate online in your TEAL account and print it from there.

7. I got married recently and applied for my certification with my married name. Is this going to be a problem when it comes to being recommended?
   a. Possibly. When you apply with TEA, the name you give them populates on a list that the university receives. If your maiden name was Jane Doe at any point in your SFA education and you apply for your certificate as Jane Smith with your new married name, we have no way of knowing who you are since your records are under your maiden name. It would be best to apply for your certificate as Jane Doe Smith so we can locate your records and you can have your married name on your certificate.

8. I graduated, completed all of my coursework and passed both of my tests, but my degree hasn’t been conferred on my transcript, so I can’t be recommended for certification yet. I have a job offer and they need me to be certified. What do I do?
   a. You need to email edcert@sfasu.edu and request a Pending Letter (some schools call it a “Statement of Eligibility”). This will satisfy the hiring ISD until you are fully certified.

VIII. Student Ethics and Other Policy Information:

Class Attendance and Excused Absence: Policy 6.7

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and, if indicated in the syllabus, submission of completed assignments are expected at all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation as well as note this information in required reports and in determining final grades. Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with accepted excuses may be permitted to make up work for up to three weeks of absences during a semester or one week of a summer term, depending on the nature of the missed work. Make-up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence.

Standard 2: Design and develop digital age learning experiences and assessments.

Standard 3: Model digital age work and learning.

Standard 4: Promote and model digital citizenship and responsibility.

Standard 5: Engage in professional growth and leadership.

XI. Evaluation and Assessments (Grading):

Professionalism (100 pts): Each teacher candidate will begin the semester with 100 points for professionalism. Issues with professional behavior will result in the SFA field supervisor deducting professionalism points. Points may be deducted for language, dress, conduct and any unprofessional behavior.

*In single-placements (8-12 certifications):

One Informal Observations (100 pts each): The SFA field supervisor will evaluate candidates teaching a lesson two times in each placement prior to the final formal evaluation in that placement.

Four Formal Observations (200 pts): The SFA field supervisor will conduct a final formal evaluation toward the end of each placement. In order to pass the course, teacher candidates must earn an average score of 2 on the formal evaluation regardless of the points accumulated.

*In split-placements (all-level certifications):

Two Informal Evaluations (100 pts each): The SFA field supervisor will evaluate candidates teaching a lesson two times in each placement prior to the final formal evaluation in that placement.

Four Formal Evaluations (200 pts each): The SFA field supervisor will conduct a final formal evaluation toward the end of each placement. In order to pass the course, teacher candidates must earn an average score of 2 on the formal evaluations regardless of the points accumulated.

Mental Health Training (pass / fail): Mental health training is required of all teacher candidates by the Texas Education Agency (TEA). Candidates must complete an online training and upload the certification of completion in LiveText - FEM to successfully complete SED 442.

Final Dispositions by Candidate (pass / fail): The Final Dispositions by Candidate is a pass/fail assignment. The intent of the assignment is for candidates to self-assess to determine educator dispositions upon completion of the educator preparation program. Completion of the assessment is required to pass SED 442.

Attendance: Student teachers must attend class at their assigned placement. Each student teacher has two excused absences. Excused absences include illness, family emergency and other emergencies. Excused absences do NOT include certification testing, vacations, and other non-emergency circumstances. If a student teacher must miss more than 2 days, the additional days must be made-up PRIOR TO the SFA graduation date. Late arrivals and early departures count toward absences. Each TWO late arrivals or early departures are equivalent to ONE absence. Student teachers experiencing issues with attendance will lose professionalism points for the assigned area on the Professionalism
Assessment Instrument.

In order to pass the class, candidates must earn an average score of 2 on the Formal Observations and a minimum of 800 total points in single-placement assignments and a minimum of 880 points in split-placement assignments. SED 442 is a Pass/Fail course.

Failure Clause: Student teachers can immediately earn an F in this course due to the following reasons:

- The placement site asks for the student teacher to be removed
- More than 5 absences or 10 late arrivals/early departures
- Violation of any school policy
- Violation of any university policy
- Violation of the Texas Code of Ethics
- Violation of any state or federal law
- Failure to complete any course assignments
- Any other egregious acts of non-professional behavior

FEM must be purchased from www.livetext.com for a fee of $20.00.

VI. Course Evaluations:

Near the conclusion of each semester, students in the College of Education electronically evaluate courses taken within the COE. Evaluation data is used for a variety of important purposes including: 1. Course and program improvement, planning, and accreditation; 2. Instruction evaluation purposes; and 3. Making decisions on faculty tenure, promotion, pay, and retention. As you evaluate this course, please be thoughtful, thorough, and accurate in completing the evaluation. Please know that the COE faculty is committed to excellence in teaching and continued improvement. Therefore, your response is critical.

In the College of Education, the course evaluation process has been simplified and is completed electronically through MySFA. Although the instructor will be able to view the names of students who complete the survey, all ratings and comments are confidential and anonymous, and will not be available to the instructor until after final grades are posted.
VII. Student Ethics and Other Policy

Information: Class Attendance and Excused Absence: Policy 6.7

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and, if indicated in the syllabus, submission of completed assignments are expected at all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. Based on university policy, failure of students to adhere to these requirements shall influence the course grade, financial assistance, and/or enrollment status. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation as well as note this information in required reports and in determining final grades. Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with accepted excuses may be permitted to make up work for up to three weeks of absences during a semester or one week of a summer term, depending on the nature of the missed work. Make-up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities: Policy 6.1 and 6.6

To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 936-468-3004 as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilitieservices/.

Student Academic Dishonesty: Policy 4.1

Abiding by university policy on academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes, but is not limited to:
- using or attempting to use unauthorized materials on any class assignment or exam;
- falsifying or inventing of any information, including citations, on an assignment; and/or;
- helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism.

Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were one's own. Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

Penalties for Academic Dishonesty
Penalties may include, but are not limited to reprimand, no credit for the assignment or exam, re-submission of the work, make-up exam, failure of the course, or expulsion from the university.

Student Appeals
A student who wishes to appeal decisions related to academic dishonesty should follow procedures outlined in Academic Appeals by Students (6.3).

Withheld Grades: Policy 5.5
At the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic unit head, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F, except as allowed through policy [i.e., Active Military Service (6.14)]. If students register for the same course in future semesters, the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Student Code of Conduct: Policy 10.4
Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program. Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This policy applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the iCare: Early Alert Program at SFA. III. Course Assignments, Activities, Instructional Strategies, use of Technology:

The student teaching semester must be a minimum of 15 weeks (typically one semester) of observation and teaching. For specific requirements, consult the Student Teaching Handbook for the current academic year. http://coe.sfasu.edu/documents/StudentTeachingHandbookFINAL.pdf

Assignments:

Mental Health Training:

Senate Bill 460, effective September 1, 2015, requires Texas school teachers to learn about detecting and educating students with mental or emotional disorders and providing positive behavioral interventions and supports.

Under SB 460, teacher candidates will study characteristics of mental and emotional disorders among children, as well as effective strategies for teaching, intervening with students, de-escalation techniques and PBIS (Positive Behaviors Interventions and Support).

All student teachers shall be individually responsible for selecting online mental health training from the list of providers, completing the training, and printing and uploading the completion certificate in LiveText-FEM.

(Assessed through proof of completion certificate in LiveText-FEM.)
Daily interaction at placement campus for 15 weeks, including but not limited to:

- Assessment
- Planning
- Instruction
- Classroom guidance / management
- Planning and professional development meetings
- Professionalism

(Assessed through two informal assessed lessons per placement and one formal assessed lesson per placement in split assignments, or through 4 informal and one formal assessment in single assignments. These are collected in LiveText-FEM by the SFA Field Supervisor.)

As a culminating course for the secondary education program, teacher candidates are expected to demonstrate the knowledge, skills, and dispositions expected of an educator. These are demonstrated through the following PLOs and standards:

SED Undergraduate Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs):

1. The student will develop, create, and adapt instruction and assessment for all students.

2. The student will effectively manage a diverse learner-centered classroom.

3. The student will implement and modify instruction based on the needs of diverse students by incorporating technology as appropriate.

4. The student will understand the purpose of education and philosophical perspectives including professional, legal, and ethical issues.

5. The student will use strategies and methods for reading and literacy in various content areas.

National Council of Teachers of Mathematics Standards

Standard 1: Content Knowledge

Effective teachers of secondary mathematics demonstrate and apply knowledge of major mathematics concepts, algorithms, procedures, connections, and applications within and among mathematical content domains.

Standard 2: Mathematical Practices

Effective teachers of secondary mathematics solve problems, represent mathematical ideas, reason, prove, use mathematical models, attend to precision, identify elements of structure, generalize, engage in mathematical communication, and make connections as essential mathematical practices. They understand that these practices intersect with mathematical content and that understanding relies on the ability to demonstrate these practices within and among mathematical domains and in their teaching.
Standard 3: Content Pedagogy

Effective teachers of secondary mathematics apply knowledge of curriculum standards for mathematics and their relationship to student learning within and across mathematical domains. They incorporate research-based mathematical experiences and include multiple instructional strategies and mathematics-specific technological tools in their teaching to develop all students’ mathematical understanding and proficiency. They provide students with opportunities to do mathematics – talking about it and connecting it to both theoretical and real-world contexts. They plan, select, implement, interpret, and use formative and summative assessments for monitoring student learning, measuring student mathematical understanding, and informing practice.

Standard 4: Mathematical Learning Environment

Effective teachers of secondary mathematics exhibit knowledge of adolescent learning, development, and behavior. They use this knowledge to plan and create sequential learning opportunities grounded in mathematics education research where students are actively engaged in the mathematics they are learning and building from prior knowledge and skills. They demonstrate a positive disposition toward mathematical practices and learning, include culturally relevant perspectives in teaching, and demonstrate equitable and ethical treatment of and high expectations for all students. They use instructional tools such as manipulatives, digital tools, and virtual resources to enhance learning while recognizing the possible limitations of such tools.

Standard 5: Impact on Student Learning

Effective teachers of secondary mathematics provide evidence demonstrating that as a result of their instruction, secondary students’ conceptual understanding, procedural fluency, strategic competence, adaptive reasoning, and application of major mathematics concepts in varied contexts have increased. These teachers support the continual development of a productive disposition toward mathematics. They show that new student mathematical knowledge has been created as a consequence of their ability to engage students in mathematical experiences that are developmentally appropriate, require active engagement, and include mathematics-specific technology in building new knowledge.

Standard 6: Professional Knowledge and Skills

Effective teachers of secondary mathematics are lifelong learners and recognize that learning is often collaborative. They participate in professional development experiences specific to mathematics and mathematics education, draw upon mathematics education research to inform practice, continuously reflect on their practice, and utilize resources from professional mathematics organizations.

5. The student will use strategies and methods for reading and literacy in various content areas.

National Science Teachers Association (NSTA) Preservice Science Standards:

Standard 1: Content Knowledge-Effective teachers of science understand and articulate the knowledge and practices of contemporary science. They interrelate and interpret important concepts, ideas, and applications in their fields of licensure.

Preservice teachers will:

1a) Understand the major concepts, principles, theories, laws, and interrelationships of their fields of licensure and supporting fields as recommended by the National Science Teachers Association.

1b) Understand the central concepts of the supporting disciplines and the supporting roles of science-specific technology.

1c) Show an understanding of state and national curriculum standards and their impact on the content knowledge necessary for teaching P-12 students.

Standard 2: Content Pedagogy-Effective teachers of science understand how students learn and develop scientific knowledge. Preservice teachers use scientific inquiry to develop this knowledge for all students.

Preservice teachers will:
2a) Plan multiple lessons using a variety of inquiry approaches that demonstrate their knowledge and understanding of how all students learn science.
2b) Include active inquiry lessons where students collect and interpret data in order to develop and communicate concepts and understand scientific processes, relationships, and natural patterns from empirical experiences. Applications of science-specific technology are included in the lessons when appropriate.
2c) Design instruction and assessment strategies that confront and address naïve concepts/preconceptions.

Standard 3: Learning environments-Effective teachers of science are able to plan for engaging all students in science learning by setting appropriate goals that are consistent with knowledge of how students learn science and are aligned with state and national standards. The plans reflect the nature and social context of science, inquiry, and appropriate safety considerations. Candidates design and select learning activities, instructional settings, and resources—including science-specific technology, to achieve those goals; and they plan fair and equitable assessment strategies to evaluate if the learning goals are met.

Preservice teachers will:
3a) Use a variety of strategies that demonstrate the candidates’ knowledge and understanding of how to select the appropriate teaching and learning activities – including laboratory or field settings and applicable instruments and/or technology- to allow access so that all students learn. These strategies are inclusive and motivating for all students.

These plans provide for equitable achievement of science literacy for all students.
3c) Plan fair and equitable assessment strategies to analyze student learning and to evaluate if the learning goals are met. Assessment strategies are designed to continuously evaluate preconceptions and ideas that students hold and the understandings that students have formulated.
3d) Plan a learning environment and learning experiences for all students that demonstrate chemical safety.

4b) Design and demonstrate activities in a P-12 classroom that demonstrate an ability to implement emergency procedures and the maintenance of safety equipment, policies and procedures that comply with established state and/or national guidelines. Candidates ensure safe science activities appropriate for the abilities of all students.
4c) Design and demonstrate activities in a P-12 classroom that demonstrate ethical decision-making with respect to the treatment of all living organisms in and out of the classroom. They emphasize safe, humane, and ethical treatment of animals and comply with the legal restrictions on the collection, keeping, and use of living organisms.

Standard 5: Impact on Student Learning-Effective teachers of science provide evidence to show that P-12 students’ understanding of major science concepts, principles, theories, and laws have changed as a result of instruction by the candidate and that student knowledge is at a level of understanding beyond memorization. Candidates provide evidence for the diversity of students they teach. Preservice teachers will:

5a) Collect, organize, analyze, and reflect on diagnostic, formative and summative evidence of a change in mental functioning demonstrating that scientific knowledge is gained and/or corrected.

5b) Provide data to show that P-12 students are able to distinguish science from nonscience, understand the evolution and practice of science as a human endeavor, and critically analyze assertions made in the name of science.

5c) Engage students in developmentally appropriate inquiries that require them to develop concepts and relationships from their observations, data, and inferences in a scientific manner.

Standard 6: Professional Knowledge and Skills-Effective teachers of science strive continuously to improve their knowledge and understanding of the ever-changing knowledge base of both content, and science pedagogy, including approaches for addressing inequities and inclusion for all students in science. VIII. Student Ethics and Other Policy Information:

Class Attendance and Excused Absence: Policy 6.7

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and, if indicated in the syllabus, submission of completed assignments are expected at all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. Based on university policy, failure of students to adhere to these requirements shall influence the course grade, financial assistance, and/or enrollment status. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation as well as note this information in required reports and in determining final grades. Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with accepted excuses may be permitted to make up work for up to three weeks of absences during a semester or one week of a summer term, depending on the nature of the missed work. Make-up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities: Policy 6.1 and 6.6

To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 936-468-3004 as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. For additional information, go to http://www.sfasu.edu/disabilityservices/.

Student Academic Dishonesty: Policy 4.1

Abiding by university policy on academic integrity is a responsibility of all university faculty and students.

Definition of Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty includes both cheating and plagiarism. Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- using or attempting to use unauthorized materials on any class assignment or exam;
- falsifying or inventing of any information, including citations, on an assignment; and/or;
- helping or attempting to help another in an act of cheating or plagiarism.

Plagiarism is presenting the words or ideas of another person as if they were one’s own. Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to:

- submitting an assignment as one’s own work when it is at least partly the work of another person;
- submitting a work that has been purchased or otherwise obtained from the Internet or another source; and/or,
- incorporating the words or ideas of an author into one’s paper or presentation without giving the author credit.

Penalties for Academic Dishonesty

Penalties may include, but are not limited to reprimand, no credit for the assignment or exam, re-submission of the work, make-up exam, failure of the course, or expulsion from the university.
Student Appeals
A student who wishes to appeal decisions related to academic dishonesty should follow procedures outlined in Academic Appeals by Students (6.3).

Withheld Grades: Policy 5.5

At the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic unit head, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F, except as allowed through policy [i.e., Active Military Service (6.14)]. If students register for the same course in future semesters, the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Student Code of Conduct: Policy 10.4

Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program. Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This policy applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom. Students who do not attend class regularly or who perform poorly on class projects/exams may be referred to the iCare: Early Alert Program at SFA. Information regarding the iCare program is found at https://www.sfasu.edu/judicial/earlyalert.asp or call the office at 936-468-2703.

Completion of the assessment is required to pass SED 442.

Attendance: Student teachers must attend class at their assigned placement. Each student teacher has two excused absences. Excused absences include illness, family emergency and other emergencies. Excused absences do NOT include certification testing, vacations, and other non-emergency circumstances. If a student teacher must miss more than 2 days, the additional days must be made-up PRIOR TO the SFA graduation date. Late arrivals and early departures count toward absences. Each TWO late arrivals or early departures are equivalent to ONE absence. Student teachers experiencing issues with attendance will lose professionalism points for the assigned area on the Professionalism Assessment Instrument.

In order to pass the class, candidates must earn an average score of 2 on the Formal Observations and a minimum of 800 total points in single-placement assignments and a minimum of 880 points in split-placement assignments. SED 442 is a Pass/Fail course.

Failure Clause: Student teachers can immediately earn an F in this course due to the following reasons:

The placement site asks for the student teacher to be removed
More than 5 absences or 10 late arrivals/early departures
Violation of any school policy
Violation of any university policy
Violation of the Texas Code of Ethics

VII. Course Evaluations:

Near the conclusion of each semester, students in the College of Education electronically evaluate courses taken within the COE. Evaluation data is used for a variety of important purposes including:
1. Course and program improvement, planning, and accreditation;

As you evaluate this course, please be thoughtful, thorough, and accurate in completing the evaluation. Please know that the COE faculty is committed to excellence in teaching and continued improvement. Therefore, your response is critical.

In the College of Education, the course evaluation process has been simplified and is completed electronically through MySFA. Although the instructor will be able to view the names of students who complete the survey, all ratings and comments are confidential and anonymous, and will not be available to the instructor until after final grades are posted.

VIII. Student Ethics and Other Policy Information:

Class Attendance and Excused Absence: Policy 6.7

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and, if indicated in the syllabus, submission of completed assignments are expected at all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. Based on university policy, failure of students to adhere to these requirements shall influence the course grade, financial assistance, and/or enrollment status. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation as well as note this information in required reports and in determining final grades. Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with accepted excuses may be permitted to make up work for up to three weeks of absences during a semester or one week of a summer term, depending on the nature of the missed work. Make-up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence.
Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities: Policy 6.1 and 6.6

One Informal Evaluations (100 pts each): The SFA field supervisor will evaluate candidates teaching a lesson four times and give substantive feedback prior to the final formal evaluation.

Two Formal Evaluations (200 pts): The SFA field supervisor will conduct a final formal evaluation toward the end of each placement. In order to pass the course, teacher candidates must earn an average score of 2 on the formal evaluations regardless of the points accumulated.

Mental Health Training (pass / fail): Mental health training is required of all teacher candidates by the Texas Education Agency (TEA). Candidates must complete an online training and upload the certification of completion in LiveText-FEM to successfully complete ELE 441.

Final Dispositions by Candidate (pass / fail): The Final Dispositions by Candidate is a pass/fail assignment. The intent of the assignment is for candidates to self-assess to determine educator dispositions upon completion of the educator preparation program. Completion of the assessment is required to pass ELE 441.

Attendance: Student teachers must attend class at their assigned placement. Each student teacher has two excused absences. Excused absences include illness, family emergency and other emergencies. Excused absences do NOT include certification testing, vacations, and other non-emergency circumstances. If a student teacher must miss more than 2 days, the additional days must be made-up PRIOR TO the SFA graduation date. Late arrivals and early departures count toward absences. Each TWO late arrivals or early departures are equivalent to ONE absence. Student teachers experiencing issues with attendance will lose professionalism points for the assigned area on the Professionalism Assessment Instrument.

In order to pass the class, candidates must earn an average score of 2 on the Formal Field Experience/Clinical Evaluation and a minimum of 800 total points. ELE 441 is a Pass/Fail course.

- More than 5 absences or 10 late arrivals/early departures
- Violation of any school policy
- Violation of any university policy
- Violation of the Texas Code of Ethics
- Violation of any state or federal law
- Failure to complete any course assignments
- Any other egregious acts of non-professional behavior

VI. Readings (Required and recommended—including texts, websites, articles, etc.):

Required:

In this course you must purchase and activate the LiveText add-on, Field Experience Module (FEM), PRIOR to your first day of field experience/clinical teaching. Failure to purchase and activate the account and/or submit the required assignment(s) within the FEM system may result in course failure. FEM must be purchased from www.LiveText.com for a fee of $20.00.

VII. Course Evaluations:

Near the conclusion of each semester, students in the College of Education electronically evaluate courses taken within the COE. Evaluation data is used for a variety of important purposes including: 1. Course and program improvement, planning, and accreditation; 2. Instruction evaluation purposes; and 3. Making decisions on faculty tenure, promotion, pay, and retention. As you evaluate this course, please be thoughtful, thorough, and accurate in completing the evaluation. Please know that the COE faculty is committed to excellence in teaching and continued improvement. Therefore, your response is critical.
In the College of Education, the course evaluation process has been simplified and is completed electronically through MySFA. Although the instructor will be able to view the names of students who complete the survey, all ratings and comments are confidential and anonymous, and will not be available to the instructor until after final grades are posted.

VIII. Student Ethics and Other Policy Information:

Class Attendance and Excused Absence: Policy 6.7

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and, if indicated in the syllabus, submission of completed assignments are expected at all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. Based on university policy, failure of students to adhere to these requirements shall influence the course grade, financial assistance, and/or enrollment status. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation as well as note this information in required reports and in determining final grades. Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with accepted excuses may be permitted to make up work for up to three weeks of absences during a semester or one week of a summer term, depending on the nature of the missed work. Make-up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities: Policy 6.1 and 6.6

To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 936-468-3004 as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F, except as allowed through policy
[i.e., Active Military Service (6.14)]. If students register for the same course in future semesters, the WH

Attendance: Student teachers must attend class at their assigned placement. Each student teacher has two excused absences. Excused absences include illness, family emergency and other emergencies. Excused absences do NOT include certification testing, vacations, and other non-emergency circumstances. If a student teacher must miss more than 2 days, the additional days must be made-up PRIOR TO the SFA graduation date. Late arrivals and early departures count toward absences. Each TWO late arrivals or early departures are equivalent to ONE absence. Student teachers experiencing issues with attendance will lose professionalism points for the assigned area on the Professionalism Assessment Instrument.

In order to pass the class, candidates must earn an average score of 2 on the Formal Observations and a minimum of 800 total points in single-placement assignments and a minimum of 880 points in split-placement assignments. SPE 443 is a Pass/Fail course.

Failure Clause: Student teachers can immediately earn an F in this course due to the following reasons:

VII. Course Evaluations:

Near the conclusion of each semester, students in the College of Education electronically evaluate courses taken within the COE. Evaluation data is used for a variety of important purposes including: 1. Course and program improvement, planning, and accreditation; 2. Instruction evaluation purposes; and 3. Making decisions on faculty tenure, promotion, pay, and retention. As you evaluate this course, please be thoughtful, thorough, and accurate in completing the evaluation. Please know that the COE faculty is committed to excellence in teaching and continued improvement. Therefore, your response is critical.

In the College of Education, the course evaluation process has been simplified and is completed electronically through MySFA. Although the instructor will be able to view the names of students who complete the survey, all ratings and comments are confidential and anonymous, and will not be available to the instructor until after final grades are posted.

VIII. Student Ethics and Other Policy Information:

Class Attendance and Excused Absence: Policy 6.7

Regular, punctual attendance, documented participation, and, if indicated in the syllabus, submission of completed assignments are expected at all classes, laboratories, and other activities for which the student is registered. Based on university policy, failure of students to adhere to these requirements shall influence the course grade, financial assistance, and/or enrollment status. The instructor shall maintain an accurate record of each student’s attendance and participation as well as note this information in required reports and in determining final grades. Students may be excused from attendance for reasons such as health, family emergencies, or student participation in approved university-sponsored events. However, students are responsible for notifying their instructors in advance, when possible, for excusable absences. Whether absences are excused or unexcused, a student is still responsible for all course content and assignments. Students with accepted excuses may be permitted to make up work for up to three weeks of absences during a semester or one week of a summer term, depending on the nature of the missed work. Make-up work must be completed as soon as possible after returning from an absence.

Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities: Policy 6.1 and 6.6

To obtain disability related accommodations, alternate formats and/or auxiliary aids, students with disabilities must contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS), Human Services Building, and Room 325, 936-468-3004 as early as possible in the semester. Once verified, ODS will notify the course instructor and outline the accommodation and/or auxiliary aids to be provided. Failure to request services in a timely manner may delay your accommodations. Student Appeals
A student who wishes to appeal decisions related to academic dishonesty should follow procedures outlined in Academic Appeals by Students (6.3).

Withheld Grades: Policy 5.5
At the discretion of the instructor of record and with the approval of the academic unit head, a grade of WH will be assigned only if the student cannot complete the course work because of unavoidable circumstances. Students must complete the work within one calendar year from the end of the semester in which they receive a WH, or the grade automatically becomes an F, except as allowed through policy [i.e., Active Military Service (6.14)]. If students register for the same course in future semesters, the WH will automatically become an F and will be counted as a repeated course for the purpose of computing the grade point average.

Student Code of Conduct: Policy 10.4
Classroom behavior should not interfere with the instructor’s ability to conduct the class or the ability of other students to learn from the instructional program. Unacceptable or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Students who disrupt the learning environment may be asked to leave class and may be subject to judicial, academic or other penalties. This policy applies to all instructional forums, including electronic, classroom, labs, discussion groups, field trips, etc. The instructor shall have full discretion over what behavior is appropriate/inappropriate in the classroom.
