What to Expect:

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Educators, and the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges require SFA to collect data for each teacher candidate. A component of being a cooperating teacher requires you to complete and submit requested forms through our online data management system, LiveText (www.LiveText.com). When a clinical teacher was assigned to you as a mentor, LiveText automatically generated an account for you. You should have received an email FROM LIVETEXT (not SFA) in your school email account with a username and password. If you cannot find this, please check your junk or spam folder. IF you still do not find this, please contact our office at livetext@sfasu.edu.

Additionally, there are resources available to guide you online at our website:

www.sfasu.edu/education

The SFA Field Supervisor should ask you to complete the following forms in LiveText:

- Final Dispositions by Mentor-Cooperating Teacher
- Candidate Performance Evaluation by Mentor-Cooperating Teacher
- Addendum (This is dependent on the program. Not all programs collect this. If you are to complete it, it will appear in your LiveText assessments.)

Additionally, the SFA Field Supervisor will formally observe the Clinical Teacher, and ask for your assistance in completion of the following forms:

- T-TESS Informal/Formal Observation assessments.

Field Supervisors serve as a liaison to the Clinical Teaching Offices at SFA. Please immediately report any concerns or possible issues with your Clinical Teachers to their assigned Field Supervisor.

Responsibilities of the Mentor or Cooperating Teacher:

You, the Mentor or Cooperating Teacher, are one of the most important and influential people in the preparation of professional teachers. This influence is critical to the teaching profession. Cooperating Teachers are selected because of their personal experiences within the classroom and their willingness to mentor our future educators and complete the required documents.

Cooperating Teacher Responsibilities Include:

- ◆ Sharing information and guiding the clinical teacher.
- ◆ Mentoring the students in developing strategies to independently and effectively develop lesson plans.
- ◆ Allowing the clinical teacher to observe, analyze, question, plan, and teach lessons during the clinical teaching experience.
- ◆ Remaining in the classroom to monitor the clinical teacher.
- ◆ Guiding the clinical teacher to think reflectively about lessons taught.
- ◆ Providing specific, constructive feedback for the purpose of professional growth.
- ◆ Completing the required forms for SFA.
- ◆ Taking students seriously. A question of problem that seems trivial to you is new ground for clinical teachers.
- ◆ Nurture self-sufficiency. Utilize your personal teaching experiences to encourage confidence and independent thinking.
- ◆ Help students develop professionalism by providing specific praise as well as constructive feedback.

Important Topics:

ABSENCES: Clinical Teachers must call the placement school prior to an absence. All absences beyond two must be made up. Arriving early/staying late does not accrue nor can the time be used in place of an absence.

ATTENDANCE: Clinical teachers are required to maintain the same daily schedule as the Cooperating Teacher (which includes professional assignments that extend beyond the normal school day).

Please note:

Approval for the release of a clinical teacher from attendance is the responsibility of the Cooperating Teacher, the Field Supervisor, and may involve the Clinical Teaching Coordinator. It is NOT at the discretion of the SFA Clinical Teacher to determine acceptable absences.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT: Clinical teachers will not administer corporal punishment. If school personnel determine corporal punishment is necessary, it must be administered by a district employee, NEVER a clinical teacher.

PROFESSIONALISM: Clinical teachers adhere to ethical standards of the teaching profession, to SFA policies for university students, and to the policies of the school where they are assigned.

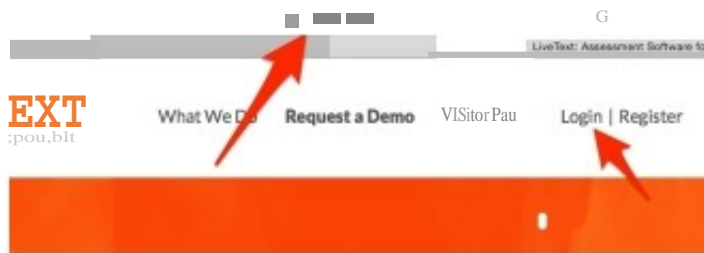

SUBSTITUTING: Clinical teachers may serve as substitute teachers only after successfully completing six weeks of clinical teaching. Clinical teachers may substitute for a maximum of five days: 2 days unpaid followed by 3 days paid, as approved by the district.

2.4.e Policies, procedures and practices for managing candidate complaints

Stephen F. Austin State University
James I. Perkins College of Education –
Office of Assessment and Accountability

Professional Dispositions, Intervention, and Program Continuation Policy

The Perkins College of Education Educator Preparation Program (EPP) is responsible for preparing candidates who have the required knowledge, skills, and professional dispositions to become effective educators. Educator preparation providers establish and monitor attributes and dispositions beyond academic ability that candidates must demonstrate at admissions and during the program (CAEP Standard 3.3, 2015).

Prior to admission to the EPP, during coursework, and in campus and field experiences, faculty will assess the candidate's demonstration of these professional dispositions and provide feedback to facilitate progress.

Within any education or major area course, should a candidate demonstrate unsatisfactory professional dispositions, the following procedure will be followed:

1. Faculty members work with all candidates using informal attempts to change behaviors that include but are not limited to the following: providing guidance, observation, anecdotal records, differentiated instruction, and meetings with the student.
2. If the concern is not resolved, the candidate will be referred to the Departmental Program Continuation Review Panel. The Departmental Program Continuation Review Panel is comprised of the Department Chair, the Program Coordinator, and faculty appointed by the Department Chair, including but not limited to the faculty member reporting the unsatisfactory dispositions. This panel will interview the candidate and complete a Candidate Program Continuation Plan.
3. If the concern is not resolved, the candidate will be referred to the Professional Educators' Program Continuation Review Panel. This panel is comprised of at least three members from the Professional Educators' Council, including but not limited to the Associate Dean of Student and Faculty Affairs and faculty members with at least one representative from the student's program and at least one representative from an outside department. The Professional Educators' Program Continuation Review Panel will interview the candidate and determine:
 - a. If the candidate may continue in the program and meet conditions established by the panel, or
 - b. The candidate has not demonstrated satisfactory improvement in accordance with the Candidate Program Continuation Plan and is removed from the Educator Certification Program.
4. Candidates may appeal the decision of the Professional Educators' Program Continuation Review Panel to the Dean of the College of Education within five class days. The following documentation is required:
 - a. Copy of Candidate Program Continuation Plan
 - b. Formal letter with supporting evidence as to why the candidate should not be removed from the Educator Certification Program.
 - c. The dean will respond in a timely manner.

d. Any further appeal will follow policy A-2: Academic Appeal and begin at step 4.

For instances where the educational learning environment is threatened, the candidate may be removed from the classroom pending prompt review by the Professional Educators' Program Continuation Review Panel. (Policy D-34: Student Discipline)
